January 11th Meeting Information

Anthony Chan Ph.D.
Managing Director and Senior Economist
JPMorgan Asset Management

JOINT MEETING WITH TMA OF WISCONSIN

Dr. Chan received his BBA in Finance & Investments from Baruch College in 1979. In 1983, Anthony received his M.A. in Economics followed by his Ph.D. in Economics in May 1986 from the University of Maryland. In addition, Anthony also spent time at the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve in Washington, DC as a Doctoral fellow from 1985 to 1986. Upon graduating, he became an Economics Professor at the University of Dayton from 1986 to 1989. Next, he joined the Federal Reserve Bank of New York as an Economist from 1989 to 1991. Anthony also joined Barclays de Zoete Wedd Government Securities, a Government Securities Primary Dealer, from 1991 to 1994 as a Senior Economist.

More recently, Anthony joined JPMorgan Asset Management (formerly known as Banc One Investment Advisors Corporation) in mid-1994. His responsibilities include economic analysis and research in support of the Columbus-based fixed income team and investment management distribution businesses globally, as well as those of Private Client Services. Anthony also spends a great deal of his time in front of clients delivering economic presentations around the country. JPMorgan Asset Management has $790 billion dollars of combined assets under management. Anthony is also a member of the prestigious Blue Chip Monthly Forecasting panel, as well as the following other forecasting panels: (1) National Association of Business Economists Quarterly Macro Panel and (3) The Reuters, Bloomberg and Dow Jones Weekly Economic Indicator panels. In addition, he served on the Economic Advisory Committee of the American Bankers Association from 2001-2002. One of the most important responsibilities of this ABA group was to brief Alan Greenspan and the rest of the board members in Washington, DC twice a year in an off the record session.
